The Board of Directors and Stockholders
Intel Corporation

We have examined the accompanying balance sheet of Intel Corporation at December 31, 1970 and the related statements of operations, stockholders' equity and source and application of funds for the year then ended. Our examination was made in accordance with generally accepted auditing standards, and accordingly included such tests of the accounting records and such other auditing procedures as we considered necessary in the circumstances.

In our opinion, the statements mentioned above present fairly the financial position of Intel Corporation at December 31, 1970 and the results of its operations and the source and application of its funds for the year then ended, in conformity with generally accepted accounting principles applied on a basis consistent with that of the preceding year.

NOTES TO FINANCIAL STATEMENTS
December 31, 1970

INTEL CORPORATION
NOTES TO FINANCIAL STATEMENTS
December 31, 1970

1. Extraordinary item

The Company has agreed to share with a Canadian manufacturer certain of its manufacturing process know-how and to provide related technical assistance and information through December 31, 1972.

The agreement provides for the Company to receive $500,000 upon delivery of specified technical information (payment was received and recorded as income in 1970), $1,000,000 subject to adjustment for a time incentive/penalty on attainment of specified product yields over a defined yield period, and royalties on future net sales, at the rate of 5% through December 31, 1971 and 2 1/2% through December 31, 1972.

As of December 31, 1970, the yield period had not been completed.

2. Plant and equipment

Substantially all capital equipment is being leased (see Note 4). Leasehold improvements are being amortized using the straight-line method over the life of the lease. Equipment is being depreciated over its estimated useful life of four years on a straight-line method.

Approximately 75% of the land purchased during the year is pledged under a first deed of trust to secure an 8 1/2% purchase money note. The note balance of $566,516 is payable in annual installments of $188,838.

3. Sales to distributors

Certain of the Company's sales are made to distributors under agreements allowing right of return of merchandise unsold by the distributors. Included in accrued liabilities is management's estimate (approximately $250,000 at December 31, 1970) of reserves required to cover such potential liability.

4. Commitments

The Company leases all of its capital equipment for periods from 4 to 8 years. Under equipment leases entered into through December 31, 1970, the Company is obligated to pay rent in 1971 amounting to approximately $340,000.

The Company's present plant and general offices are located in leased facilities. Under the lease, which expires in 1974, the Company is obligated to pay rent in 1971 amounting to $50,400.

The Company is constructing a new plant and office facility. Approximately $300,000 will be required to complete the project.

5. Common stock

a. Stock option plan

Officers and key employees have been granted options to purchase (within five years from the date of the grants at the rate of 25% per year) shares of the Company's authorized but unissued capital stock at the fair market value at the date of grant.

Options exercisable at December 31, 1970		13,455	$ 45,000	$2.86-$14.00

b. Employee stock purchase plan

In 1969, the shareholders approved an employee stock purchase plan whereby eligible employees may purchase shares of the Company's authorized unissued capital stock at the fair market value on the date of purchase and the Company reserved 43,750 shares for issuance under this plan. During 1970, 4,109 shares were purchased for $57,553.

c. Other

An agreement, made by the Company in 1969, to issue shares of its stock as royalty payments in future years was cancelled during 1970.
